About This Game

The resistance is headed by Admiral John Wayne. They have detected several strategic movements in a planet placed in the outer system. The rebel spies report that the YUK Empire has built a destructive weapon that could unbalance the current war.

The codename of the weapon is: PROJECT XINATRA

In order to locate and destroy XINATRA, the Admiral Wayne has hired the best bounty hunter in the Universe. Nobody knows his name, but he is known for his courage and skill in the battle.

It is an action game inspired in the old classic arcade games. You will remember those classics games while you are killing hordes of enemies.

Project Xinatra will take you along five different locations in search of the ultimate weapon. Collect weapons and items and destroy hundreds of enemies. They all want to see you dead, but you are the best warrior around the galaxy.

FEATURES:

- Ranking online: Mark your name among the best players of Steam
- 5 amazing stages: The adventure begins on the surface of the planet, with radioactive rain and a lot of enemies. Descend around the facilities of the enemy army. Use your combat motorbike in order to reach the secret base. The enemy army will not stop until you are dead, but they don't know your skills in combat.
 - Amazing final bosses: They will be your worst nightmare.
 - Powerful weapons combat
 - Classic old school gameplay
 - Difficulty adjusted only for the hardcore players
 - Incredible soundtracks

Awesome game! This should be way more popular! :D. Played the campaign for a few hours, that large area is really hard to defend and you get frustrated easily, the other side even on Easy seems just too powerful for your Economy. You can never have a big army and the other side is always taking your town.

It is a good challenge though and it is tough to win but enjoyable.. I haven't played much but i've been looking for a good bomberman remake for so long and it's free, no reason not to try it. it plays great and I plan on playing it a lot with friends. I would gladly pay for this game pretty much as it is.

However, a couple of things I would like to change or have an option for in match creation is;

-Adding AI if possible

-having options to disable the bomb kick or set a limited use for each map/timed cooldown so it feels more like the old bomberman where you can trap enemies.

The kick is an interesting tactical idea though so I wouldn't like to see it fully removed from the game.

Hope to see some of you in there!. A classic game made even better than it was. So much fun! Worth every second you play!. If you want to play with a sim racing game but your PC is very poor, then get this game. Tons of mods (FREE MODS!!), and tons of fun. Go for it ;)

So basically, I usually don't write reviews, but this one I had to. This game is a must have, and if you don't have it, your truly missing out.

So lets start off with gameplay. Truly amazing and realistic. I plugged my Xbox controller, and the game felt waay more smoother (would recommend original Xbox controller). But if your looking to be competitive, better than all your friends at this game, then use mouse and keyboard. Overall I would give gameplay 9.8/10 due to its lack of banana peels making your car slide.

Next, lets look at the graphics. Most people would be like "Eww, these graphics are garbage. But those are to add to the realness of the game. Whenever you look outside your window do you see a gorgeous forza racetrack? No! So whats the point of making it look good, when your game is realistic with worse graphics. Overall, I would give the graphics an 9.9/10 due to the lack of no decals on cars. (please add)

Now, to the part that is crucial to the game. The AI. I have never felt more of a challenge when racing against an AI. Like I said before, why waste so much time on graphics when you can have performance. The AI really shows that graphics are not key to a good game. Overall, I would give the AI a 9.98/10 due to its lack of going into reverse to let me win (winky face)

Next lets talk about the competitiveness of this game. When I hop onto Race, I expect some hard challenges, not the extremely difficult challenge from the easy mode AI, but instead from my friends. Me and my friend have been in love with this game, and we always Race eachother. Its truly a bonding experience for the both of us. Overall, for the competitiveness of this game, I'd rate it a 9.998/10 due to my lack of friends.

In conclusion, this game is almost truly a masterpiece. With the game being so top of the line, even though it was published in early 2018, everything still holds up for the beginning of 2019. So overall, I would rate this game a 9.9999 only because of its couple little lacks.. so i said this game was bad that it kept crashing, but that was my fault my old computer could not play it but now with my new one it runs great and i love the idea of this game, now since it is not a full game there are bugs and still work to be done because the biggest part to me is the digging physics, but im sure in time the devs will update them but out of all i do love this game. There's good things I can say about this game. The atmosphere is fantastic, so is the voice work. I found this to be genuinely creepy. That being said, the gameplay is miserable. You sink absurdly slow, and rely on brief flashes of light to even see where you are. Blinding the player frequently isn't difficult gameplay, its taking control away from the user. I can't in good faith recommend this. Sorry.. Cross between plain jigsaws and Plants v Zombies. Solve jigsaw to kill zombies. Kill zombies to allow time to solve jigsaw!. Sor-
